CLASS WILL

I, Paul Adao, leave a can of Right Guard to Mike Demetri, only to be used before gym. I, John Allen, leave my New York accent. I, Leslie Allen, leave, backsliding fearlessly. I, Ron Alexander, leave my next crop of whiskers to Mr. Chamberlain. I, Kerry Anderson, leave my future sister-in-law, Jane Studley, in school. Have fun, Jane! I, Cora Avellar, leave but six more to follow.

I, Rick Backus, leave my car under great protection so "Fat Larry" won't demolish it. I, Lee Bailey leave for bigger and better anything. I, Jim Baker, leave, hoping all future gym classes will have as much fun doing jumping-jacks as I did. I, Rick Banas, leave my kidneys and liver to Mcdical science. I, Kevin Bardwell, leave my glass pipe to Mr. Pettingil. I, David Bean, leave dis here school. I, Roger Bismore, leave Nauset, not to be replaced by sports figures like Larry Leonard. I, Linda Brewer, leave.

I, Fletcher Brock, leave dirty shoes to you. I, Mark Brogi, leave to Kathy Nadeau my raccoon, and some bandages for her chin. I, Laura Brown, leave my ability to be late or just not making it to my sister. I, Philip Burke, leave my rizla to Eddie Lamperti. I, Peter Burling, leave my long brown locks to Mr. O'Brien, so that his liberal ideas will have to come out. I, Gary Burns, leave Nauset what it gave me: nothing. I, Steve Burns, leave a "blemma" to Mr. Morse, and a free membership card to the "Mouse Trembley Fan Club." I, Bernie Burn, leave Ted Mickle $1.00 worth of gas. To Mr. Gray I leave a collection of short stories.

I, Mike Chambers, Icave. I, Sherry Clark, leave, wishing good luck to Keith's and Wayne's teachers. I, Sharon Clifton, leave with my Mustang, supposedly. I, Carol Collins, leave typing to Mrs. Palmer. I, Harry Condit, leave with a smile. I, Lynn Connors, leave. I, Karen Cooper, leave my good marks to Jim Hayes. I, Jim Cowen, leave this school in a big mess. I, Keith Craven, leave my argyle socks to Paul Fegan. I, Beverly Crowell, leave. I, Phyll Crowell, leave. I, Linda Sue Cullum, leave Minihaha's headbands to Egredior Day, my P.S. hat to Carol O'Connor, and my intelligence to Gwen.

I, Lucy Daniels, leave with a skipole in one hand and a crutch in the other. I, Elaine Demetri, leave to see happier days. I, Debbie Deschamps, leave the chocolate chip cookies to the elves in the trees, the beanstalk climbing to Jack, Mother Goose to lay eggs. I, Bob Doane, leave Mike Demetri all my scro juice. I, LouAnne Dorrie, leave Sheree Gage in charge of my Clove Lifesaver factory. I, Naney Downs, leave. I, Trisha Duffy, leave my charitable nature to Robin McCoubrey, for poor Raymond's sake. I, Amy Dyer, leave my hip boots to the next kid who is elected "Most Likely to Remain on Cape Cod!" I, Donna Dyer, leave my giggle to my sister, Jane. Right, Mr. McCaskie?

I, David Edwards, leave, having been delighted long enough, for the wilds of the world. I, David Eldredge, leave my ability to be sly and never get caught at anything to Micky Miekle. I, Steven Eldredge, leave my good excuses to those who need them for our beloved Commandant Bresnahan. I, Scott Ellis, leave my can opener to Peter Larson, if it doesn't wear out. I, Warren Emond, finally leave, after all these years. I, Fonda Buck, leave my ingenious thinking and scrupulous methods of avoiding school days to my sister Stephanie.

I, Mary Fettig, leave to Carol O'Connor my beautiful voice. I, Lisa Filliman, leave my writing ability to a few of Mrs. Laning's students who are not so richly endowed, and my sister Robyn in the professional care of Nurse Velma Sue Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy. I, Janice Fisher, leave Paul with tears in the White of my eyes, hoping he will be cared for next year. I, Rodney Fulcher, leave all my math classes for good. I, Mari Fuller, leave Lynn Nickerson my monogrammed gold book and ritual so that she may truly find her "pot of gold." I, JoAnn Gage, leave Mrs. Erickson a clock that tells Brewster time so she'll understand why I was always late for morning practices.

I, Pam Gage, leave my hearing aid to Laurie "Tom" Smith. I, Cathy Gallagher, leave my ability to say absurd things at the wrong time to Frank Hutchings. I, Jim Gainey, leave my fullback position to N. Dunham. I, Jim Gillis, leave. I, Steve Gilmore, leave my seaweed to Mrs. Roche, my bad knee to Sheree Gage, (she already has one, so why not have two?), and my brain to Scott Newcomb. I, David Gould, leave, still amazed at Mr. Bresnahan. I, Brian Gove, leave my space in life. I, Laura Graham, leave my body to the Lord, a living sacrifice. I, Alexandra Guyer, leave my gift for renaming people to Linda Payne, and my tonguetwisting name to Mr. Chamberlin.

I, Peter Hall, leave my extraordinary golfing ability to Wilkie Bear, in hopes that he finally figures out that the object of the game is to stay on the fairway. I, Gerald Harper, leave my bike to any dumb nut who wants it. I, John Harris, leave my brains to Scott Newcomb. I, Jeff Haskell, leave my brother Peter to straighten Mr. Bresnahan out. I, Lynne Hendrickson, leave. I, David Holbrook, leave John Bahr to shave it through and through. I, John Howard, leave one gram of nepalese to Bart Melcher. I, Pat Howes, leave my ability to color—co-ordinate clothes to Joanne Hart and Jane Straiton. I, Shane Howland, leave the honor of fooling around to anyone who can handle it as well as I have.

I, David Johnson, leave my open mind to anyone who can fill it with something worthwhile. I, Susan Johnston, leave. 1, Dotti Jordan, leave my nickname "Zipper" to Debbie Young. I, Q, leave arguments with teachers to next year's leaders.

I, Vicki King, leave to Sheree Gage the presentation of that one award feared most by all coaches: "The Ficklé Finger of Fate." I, Chuck Klingenstein, leave my goodnatured "kidding" to whoever can handle it. I, Larry Kreber, leave ten sheep to Mr. Smith, five sheep to Mr. Finlay, and the whole flock to Mr. Gilmore.

I, Charmian Ladner, leave for the lush 'seat of Mars'—'the other Eden' with greener pastures and its 'happy breed of men.' I, Steve Lajoie, leave, wondering "what the story is." I, Michelle Lane, leave Tina a bottle dump and a ticket to Italy. I, Eric Larsen, leave very fast on my back wheel. I, Marcia Lecomte, leave, hopefully, for Brazil. I, David Lee, leave, for the better of mankind. I, Larry Leonard, leave a case of bananas and a football to Mike Demetri. I, Karl Lindstrom, leave. I, Lisa Lorraine, leave Mrs. Laning a copy of Herman Hesse to help her with creative writing, and Franny Guyer a can of "crevettes."

I, Jane MacKnight, leave. I, Judy Manning, leave, singing "California here I come." I, Bob McAdams, leave. I, Robin, McCoubrey, leave my faithful and loyal nature to Trisha Duffy, for the poor groundsman's sake. I, W. Meads, depart, never to cease existing, living without bounds . . . I, Nils Miner, leave. I, Richard Murphy, leave all my Newsweeks to Mr. Kelley.

I, Rani Nardin, leave this school like I've left all the others. I, Cindy Nickerson, leave my skinny legs to my sister Paula. I, Jody Nickerson, leave Herbie another Easter egg on his doorstep so he may never forget the "two dumb bunnies" in his Chemistry class. I, Leslie-Ann Morse, leave my French to Mrs. Morrison. I, David O'Brien, leave. I, Paul O'Connell, leave. I, Kathy O'Connor, leave a ton of Jello and one long neck to Frank Hutchings up on Giraffe Hill.

I, Richard Olson, leave to Mrs. Emerson the collection of Hobb essays on Man's behavior. I, Rosanna G. Pacino, leave all my Newsweeks to Mr. Kelley. I, Kitty Paget, leave. I, Tina Penney, leave my brother Dick to bug Miss Avellar. I, Gail Peterson, leave the tax-payers of Orleans, Eastham and Wellfleet one large bill. I, Janet Peterson, leave my van and Marcia's gym uniform to my sister, Marcia.

I, Jeff Philbrick, leave Robert Zimmerman my ability to play the harmonica, since he already stole my style. I, Linda Phinney, leave Mr. Bresnahan the suspension of thousands to come. I, Donna Pillsbury, leave, having never been. I, Sandi Pirnat, leave, wishing Mary Popoli good luck in next year's Chemistry class. I, Tami Pond, leave a little early, thank God. I, Mark Preu, leave before I know it. I, William P. Quinn Jr., leave Nauset to all those unfortunates who have yet to graduate.

I, William Reeves, leave. I, Ken Reis, leave. I, Jamie Rice, leave my seam ripper to my Home Ec. class. I, Mary Richards, leave to my brother Frankie my great ability to learn Spanish. Good luck! I, Patty Seddon, leave. I, Wendy Simon, leave on winged elbows for Australian wilds and further. I, Betty Smith, leave for good. I, Jim Smith, leave my brand new braces to Shark Newcomb.

I, Darri-Lynn Smyser, leave Norman Smyser to another year of joy at Nauset Regional High School. I, Sid Snow, leave with better thoughts toward the future. I, Elinor Spear, leave to become a carpenter's helper, hopefully. I, Bill Stafford, leave Mr. McCaskie a bowl of Maypo to eat with his 7th period spoon. I, Susan Staib, leave to next year's senior class all the problems of being a transfer student in their last year of high school. I, Pam Straley, leave so Katie Luhman can feel free to go in the girls' room during homeroom without seeing me in there.

I, Tom Sturtevant, leave. I, Pete Thomas, leave A. Rockwell, for good, Butt, also leave him Sir Nubian Nubs. Butt, Butt? and Wolfgang too! I, Erica Van Schyndel, leave, a little bit scared but happy and with no regrets. I, Sherry Veit, leave Marsha my knowledge in sewing.

I, Bruce Verfaillie, leave my — to somebody who doesn't have one. I, Susan Von Itter, depart with the courage that enables me to step into the uncertainty of the unknown, hopefully learning from each experience I may encounter along the way, in achieving my destiny . . . which is not the boundary but the fulfillment of my LIFE.

I, Marcie Walwer, leave so Ellen Avellar can wear her own gym shorts. I, Lisa Whelan, leave. I, Lance Wilcox, leave my ability to talk Vice Principals out of suspending me to anyone who needs it. I, Laurie Wilcox, leave the slumber of feelings that have died, and a shadow on the things you know. I, Sharrie Wilcox, leave in search of people. I, April Wittman, leave a cloud with a silver lining.

I, Priscilla Woods, leave. I, Vincent Yamamoto, leave a lie detector to Barry Turnbull and a can of turtle wax to Richard Holmberg. I, Linda Young, leave my Doctor's Note to Joann Coombs to get out of Mrs. Butterfield's gym class.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The independence and initiative of the 1972 Nauset Tides staff have been outstanding.

As advisors, we have had little to do, and this is as it should be.

A good yearbook is a student production, not a monument to a teacher's skill. By these standards, this has been a fine book.

The hard work, skill, and imagination shown by the small handful of editors and untitled workers, some of whom have contributed as much as the editors, are all that any advisors could have asked for.

For producing so fine a book and making our year so easy, we thank you sineerely.

Live free and beauty surrounds you, the world still astounds you each time you look at a star. Stay free, where no walls divide you, you're free as a roaring tide so there's no need to hide.

Born free, and life is worth living, but only worth living 'cause you're born free.

Born free, as free as the wind blows as free as the grass grows, Born free to follow your heart.

Across the morning sky
all the birds are leaving,
Ah, how can they know
It's time for them to go?
Before the winter fire
We'll still be dreaming,
I do not count the time,
Who knows where the time goes?

Sad deserted shore
Your fickle friends are leaving
Ah, but then you know
It's time for them to go,
But I will still be here,
I have no thought of leaving,
I do not count the time,
Who knows where the time goes?

So come the storms of winter
And the birds of spring again,
And I do not fear the time,
Who knows how my love grows?
Who knows where the time goes?

— Sandy Denny

Tell me why you are crying my son,
I know you're frightened like everyone.
Is it the thunder in the distance you fear?
Will it help if I stay very near?
I am here.

— Peter Yarrow

This day has ended.

It is closing upon us even as the water-lily upon its own tomorrow.

What was given us here we shall keep,
And if it suffices not, then again must
we come together and together stretch our hands unto the giver.

— Kahlil Gibran

Sometime, in man's existence, After his first gasp And before his last sign, He separated reality from appearance And experienced life.

Sometime, in living,
Man saw that all that was,
Will never be
All that will be,
Never is,
And all that is,
Becomes.

Sometime, in time, All men who have existed Will have died, But only a few Will have lived.

- Jon Vaughan

Well something's lost but something's gained in living every day.

— Joni Mitchell

I've looked at life from both sides now from win and lose and still somehow it's life's illusions I recall
I really don't know life at all.

— Joni Mitchell
